ASPEN | LOS ANGELES | DALLAS

The Power of art can literally transform an environment in which one works and lives. And in today's world it is as much about creating one's own personalized environment as it is about the investment.

Shelly Glasser offers an 'art experience', arranging for clients to meet artists in their studios, selecting pieces from hundreds of artists and galleries nationwide and abroad, and offering extensively researched ideas to help you (and your design team) achieve your overall vision. Each work of art should convey a part of the overall story reflecting the personality and essence of its owner. Her aim is to inform and empower the client in personalizing their home and work-space with art they can truly connect with and one that will last a lifetime.

Shelly is a blend of enthusiast, dealer, gallerist, curator, producer and businesswoman. She was introduced to art at a young age – born into a family owned art gallery of 3 generations in San Antonio, Texas. With an Art History minor attending University of Colorado and earning her BA at University of Texas she moved to Los Angeles and focused on the art of filmmaking. She held the position as Sr. VP of a prominent Hollywood production company, and produced several films including the critically acclaimed "Good Girl" with Jennifer Aniston, "Prefontaine", and "Riot" for Showtime, which she presented at the Kennedy Center.

She relished the opportunity to return to Colorado and design, launch and run a gallery in the heart of Aspen, alongside artist Christopher Martin. For the past three years Shelly has established herself in the local art scene, from Anderson Ranch to the Aspen Art Museum, orchestrating several exciting solo exhibitions nationwide – from San Francisco to the Hamptons. Shelly placed corporate and residential artwork and commissions worldwide, including Brazil, Mexico, U.K. and Australia.

Shelly has forged a strong bond with her clients, working to create exquisite spaces with art. The relationships are ongoing and so is her thirst for discovering new artists and galleries. Launching Glasser Arts & Consulting is her newest endeavor – "bridging the gap between buyer, designer and artist, and helping clients to create individualized spaces the way they envision."
